

A Slice of Life is a companion show to Flo Oy Wong The Whole Pie, a celebration of Flo Oy Wong's 75th Birthday, curated by Pamela Wu Kochiyama, Darryl Smith, and Laurie Lazer of the Luggage Store Gallery, on exhibit at the Luggage Store, from November 8th to December 28, 2013.

The Luggage Store Gallery & Asian Pacific Islander Cultural Center present Rooftop School's celebratory exhibition, A Slice of Life, featuring artwork created by Rooftop students, families and community partners.

In the Luggage Store Annex: Rooftop Art: A Slice of Life in the Tenderloin National Forest: Amara Tabor-Smith's Fresh from the Oven (12pm- 2pm), The Little Free Library, The Blue Marble Wishing Well & A Children's Garden of Verses.

On Ellis Street: Student performances (2pm-3pm) Marcus Shelby Orchestra plays "Gwah Gai: Crossing the Street" (3pm-4pm), Juana's Voice's TenderPics (12pm - 4pm), cardboard construction with The Academy of Art University's School of Interior Architecture & Design.

united states asian pacific islander cultural center of asian america

ASIAN PACIFIC ISLANDER CULTURAL CENTER
is one of 6 city-sponsored Cultural Centers supported by the San Francisco Arts Commission. http://www.apiculturalcenter.org/

APICC's mission is to support and produce multi-disciplinary art reflective of the unique experiences of Asian Pacific Islanders living in the United States.

This project is supported by: Creative Work Fund, San Francisco Arts Commission Community Arts and Education Program, San Francisco Arts Commission Cultural Equity Grants Program, California Arts Council, Zellerbach Family Foundation, The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts

California Arts Council

sfac san francisco arts commission

CREATIVEWORKFUND

Zellerbach FAMILY FOUNDATION

The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts